PRIVACY AGREEMENT

In signing this statement of privacy below, you are hereby agreeing to keep all resources containing solutions shared with you by UC Berkeley's Division of Computing, Data Science, and Society private from individuals and groups we have not permitted access to. This includes, but is not limited to:

- 1) Providing students with resources containing solutions
- 2) Providing professors and other faculty members with resources containing solutions
- 3) Posting resources containing solutions online or any other public forum

Professors at UC Berkeley have worked incredibly hard to develop these courses and have been kind enough to allow us to share these resources with you. Sharing these resources further with those who have not been granted access compromises the integrity of the course. We appreciate your understanding and abiding by these rules.
